

LANDSTINGET BLEKINGE

Information meeting:

1-Year Training to become a well-being coach

Are you participating in Arbetsförmedlingen's "etableringsfas"? Do you have an academic degree (any field)? Is your mother tongue a language outside Europe (e.g., Arabic, Persian, etc.)?

If so, now you have the opportunity to take part of a unique coaching training and to be recruited for a six-month job as a coach in a project funded by the European Social Fund.

Register to an information meeting on August the 9th by sending an e-mail to:

valbefinnandecoaching@ltblekinge.se.

Attention: The last day for registration is the 1st of August.

Landstinget Blekinge, in collaboration with different authorities in Blekinge, has now received a 2-year grant from the European Social Fund to educate, for free, residents of Blekinge within arbetsförmedlingens "etableringsuppdrag" into person-centered well-being coaches. To be eligible to participate in the education¹ you need to:

1. To be currently participating in Arbetsförmedlingen's "etableringsfas"
2. have at least a Bachelor's degree in any academic field.
3. The training is held in English, so one requirement is that the participant understands, writes, and speaks English at the academic level.

After the training the project will recruit about 10 coaches, for six months, out of all the participants that have successfully completed the training.

The agenda for the information meeting is:

- The content of the training
- Background of the project
- Recruitment process
- Requirements
- Time to ask questions
